OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: Accreditation of the EIA Consultants with Quality Council of India (QCI) National Accreditation Board of Education and Training (NABET)

In continuation of the Ministry's O.M. No. J-11013/77/2004- IA II (I) dated 30th June, 2011 regarding above mentioned subject and after a review of the progress of the accreditation process, following decision will come into force w.e.f. 1st October, 2011:

- I. Only accredited consultants as per List 'A' will be allowed to appear before the Expert Appraisal Committee (EAC) for Category 'A' projects and State Level Expert Appraisal Committee/State Environmental Impact Assessment Authority (SEAC/SEIAA) for Category 'B' projects. Registration of QCI accredited consultants will be valid for the period of accreditation/not exceeding three years and these approved EIA consultants and EIA coordinators will engage themselves only in the approved sectors as approved by the QCI.
- II. The consultants who have applied to NABET/QCI before 30th June, 2010 (within S.N.265) and whose applications are still in process, last date for accreditation/registration is extended upto 31st December, 2011. Consultants whose applications are in process are listed under List 'B'.
- III. The Consultants who have withdrawn their applications or rejected on various grounds are listed in List 'C' and will not be eligible to appear for presentation. They will be free to apply to QCI/NABET, and if accredited, will be eligible for appearance in EAC/SEAC/SEIAA from the date of accreditation.
- IV. The Consultants who have applied after 30th June, 2010 will continue to be considered by the NABET/QCI for accreditation on first-cum-first serve basis.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE OF INTEGRITY AND NO CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Any person participating in a procurement process shall:

- (a) not offer any bribe, reward or gift or any material benefit either directly or indirectly in exchange for an unfair advantage in procurement process or to otherwise influence the procurement process.
- (b) not misrepresent or omit that misleads or attempts to mislead so as to obtain a financial or other benefit or avoid an obligation.
- (c) not indulge in any collusion, Bid rigging or anti competitive behavior to impair the transparency, fairness and progress of the procurement process;
- (d) not misuse any information shared between the procuring Entity and the Bidders with an intent to gain unfair advantage in the procurement process;
- (e) not indulge in any coercion including impairing or harming or threatening to do the same, directly or indirectly, to any party or to its property to influence the procurement process.
- (f) not obstruct any investigation or audit of a procurement process.
- (g) disclose conflict of interest, if any; and
- (h) disclose any previous transgressions with any Entity in India or any other country during the last three years or any debarment by any other procuring entity.

Conflict of Interest:

The Bidder participating in a bidding process must not have a Conflict of Interest.

A Conflict of Interest is considered to be a situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Additional Conditions of Contract1. Correction of arithmetical errors

Provided that a Financial Bid is substantially responsive, the Procuring Entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis:

- i. if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the Procuring Entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected.
- ii. if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- iii. if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (i) and (ii) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated Bid does not accept the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Security shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procuring Entity's Right to Vary Quantities

- i. At the time of award of contract, the quantity of Goods, works or services originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit prices or other terms and conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.
- ii. If the Procuring Entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the Bidding Document due to change in circumstances, the Bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the Conditions of Contract.
- iii. In case of procurement of Goods or services, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity shall not be more than 50% of the value of Goods of the original contract and shall be within one month from the date of expiry of last supply. If the Supplier fails to do so, the Procuring Entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply by limited Bidding or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the supplier.
